

Acoustic Sincerity One (1)

5. Let The Lord Be Famous

Mark D. Sloan

Liner Notes

We get a more harmonious outcome when we get out of His way.

Story

One evening we were practicing, when one of our favorite personal and musical influences, and a great drummer, Uncle Phil Warner dropped by to listen. After a while, he offered a few suggestions, then departed with these sage words: “Boys, let the Lord be famous.” As he was headed for the door, Mark and I glanced at each other in stunned silence and a “who’s going to write a song based on that line” look on our faces. Mark did, and we hope you like the results.

Lyrics

I don't need to have an image
If nothing else, I'm real
Don't need to be a PhD
To know what to feel
Don't need to know where I'll be
Five years from now
Don't need to have a legacy
No one will remember anyhow
And I don't need to have a cold heart anymore
'Cause it's not about me

(Chorus)

Let the Lord Be Famous

I'm giving it all away

Let the Lord Be Famous

I'm giving it all away

I don't need to have control
Of your situation
Don't need to say something more
And then not follow through
Don't need the spotlight shining on me
So you can see my vanity
Don't need to talk me up
I'm right here plain to see
And I don't need to be selfish any more
'Cause it's not about me

(repeat Chorus)

(Bridge)

Don't buy into the measures of this world
Only liars are fooled by lies
What is shouldn't be
And what should be someday will
Can't you see, oh can't you see

(repeat Chorus)
