

Acoustic Sincerity One (1)

7. Harvest of Righteousness and Peace

Kenneth E. Robertson

Liner Notes

An instrumental dedicated to Brenda's mom, Norma Keller, inspired by her life and Hebrews 12:11.

Story

When Brenda and Brittany were out of town, caring for Brenda's mom, Norma, I was noodling around on the guitar, trying to see what I might find. Out popped this little instrumental. The next time I went to see Norma, I played it for her, because she enjoyed guitar instrumentals. After I finished playing it all the way through for the first time, she asked me to play it over and over again for a solid hour. Afterward, we prayed and cried together for a season. Then she asked me to preach her funeral. I ask you, "What mother-in-law would have the courage to give her son-in-law the ultimate last word?" So this happy little tune is dedicated to her life and legacy, as summarized in Hebrews 12:11.

Lyrics

Weren't you paying attention? It's an instrumental; there ain't no lyrics. Some people...
