

Acoustic Sincerity Two (2)

12. Stay Plugged In

Kenneth E. Robertson

Liner Notes

This song answers the question, "Lord, if your yoke is easy and your burden is light, then why am I so tired?" See John 15: 1-8.

Story

Brethren and Sisteren, have you ever been tired?
I say, Brethren and Sisteren, have you ever been tired?
Often we are faced with difficult questions of faith.
I have cried out, and possibly you have cried out, "O Lord, dear Lord, if Your yoke is easy and Your burden is light, then why am I so tired?" I asked that vexing question of the Lord.
Silence.
Again, I asked the question, "O Lord, dear Lord, if Your yoke is easy and Your burden is light, then why am I so tired?"
'Cause, you see, in that respect, I'm still an obnoxious 4-year old and I keep asking questions until I get my answer.
Again, silence.
As you might imagine, this went on for a awhile.
Finally, I heard an exasperated voice say, "Read the book of John."
I said, "Lord, can you narrow it down just a bit? John, is kind of a long book." "Nope. Shut up; start readin'."
The answer was right there waiting for me (and maybe you?) in John 15:1-8.

Lyrics

Well My yoke is easy and My burden is light
But you gotta Stay Plugged In
Yeah My yoke is easy and My burden is light
But you gotta Stay Plugged In
Plugged in, Stay Plugged In

I am the vine, you are the branch
But you gotta Stay Plugged In
I am the vine, you are the branch
But you gotta Stay Plugged In
Plugged in, Stay Plugged In

Bridge 1

So come unto Me and you will find rest
For My heart is lowly and meek
My yoke is easy and the burden is light
You gotta Stay Plugged In all week

I am the vine, you are the branch
But you gotta Stay Plugged In
I am the vine, you are the branch
But you gotta Stay Plugged In
Plugged in, Stay Plugged In

Bridge 2

If you don't come to Me, then please don't go
Sour fruit is all you will yield
Yes the harvest is ripe, but I need happy workers
Laboring out in My fields

Well My yoke is easy and My burden is light
But you gotta Stay Plugged In
Yeah My yoke is easy and My burden is light
But you gotta Stay Plugged In
Plugged in, Stay Plugged In
